

Speaker biographies

Mr. Enrique Tufet-Opi, Vice President Corporate Office, Epson Europe, Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Mr. Enrique Tufet-Opi is Vice President Corporate Office and General Counsel at Epson Europe. In this function he oversees the management of Epson's Corporate Communications, Human Resources, Legal Department, Audit and Public Affairs. He is also the Chief Legal Officer and Company Secretary of Epson Europe. Prior to joining Epson in May 2005, he was EMEA Director of Public Affairs for the world-leading PR agency, Weber Shandwick. He also worked as Vice President and Head of Public Affairs at Ogilvy Public Relations Worldwide in Brussels. In both positions he had the opportunity to devise and manage complex communication and stakeholder outreach campaigns for a variety of Fortune 50 Companies. Tufet-Opi started his international career with the Legal Unit of DG Environment and moved to a Brussels-based law firm, ABLE, where he had the opportunity to advise major multinational clients on issues relating to Environment, International Markets and Competition Law.